

Light Scattering Meeting

Business School, University of Leeds

4th-5th September

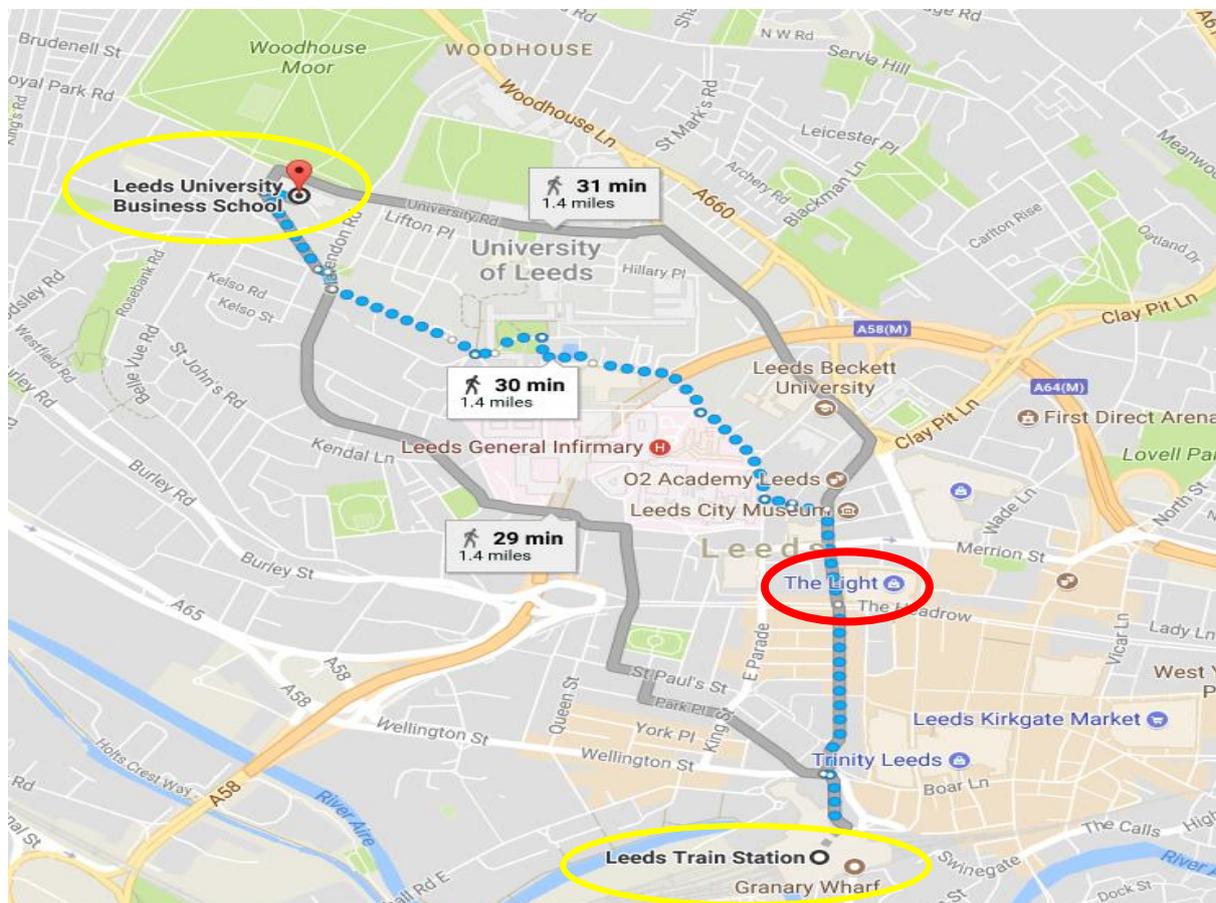

Getting Here

By air

The Leeds-Bradford International Airport is only 14 km from the city centre and is reachable by car, train and bus. Coverage from Leeds Bradford Airport extends across the UK and Europe, with regular flights operating to some of Europe's major cities. The other major airport serving Leeds is Manchester Airport, from which it takes one hour and 20 minutes to get to Leeds city centre by train. Both airports are also served by coach services.

By train

Leeds train station is connected to all major UK cities: on the National Rail Enquiries website all information and timetables are available. The Business School campus is 30 minutes' walk from the train station. Alternatively, the no. 1 bus leaves from Bishopgate Street about every 10 minutes.

By bus

There are a number of excellent bus services in Leeds. The 1, 6, 97 and 56 all stop outside the Parkinson Building. The no. 1 bus can be caught directly outside the train station. All of the others can be caught outside The Light, marked in red on the previous map

By Car

Parking at the Business School

For Sat Nav, please use postcode LS6 1AN to take you directly to the Business School. The Business School is on the corner of Clarendon and Moorland Roads.

Please be aware that visitor car parking is limited at the Business School and University. There are a small number of visitor spaces offered at the Business School on a first come, first served basis, by prior arrangement only before 16.30, by calling the Business School reception on +44 (0)113 343 6321. The spaces are situated in the Business School visitor car park accessible via Moorland Road.

Parking on the University campus

Visitors who would like to park on the University of Leeds campus during core parking hours (09.00–17.00) must arrange for a staff member to pre-book them a space via the online permit system. All pre-booked visitors must access the campus car parks via the main entrance on Woodhouse Lane (LS2 9JT) and inform the parking attendants of their name. Full details are available on the University of Leeds website.

Out of core hours parking (Evenings from 17.00, weekends and bank holidays)

Visitors who would like to park on campus on evenings, weekends and bank holidays can park in either the Orange or Multi-Storey car parks, accessed from the main University entrance on Woodhouse Lane (LS2 9JT) for a small charge. Full details and parking tariffs are available on the University of Leeds website.

Alternative options

There is a public pay and display car park on Woodhouse Lane. Limited on-street parking is available in the neighbouring areas.

Where to Eat and Drink

The Business School foyer has a café serving sandwiches, soups, coffee and cake throughout the day. If you want to stretch your legs, have a walk down to the university Refectory, highlighted on the following map. Here you will find a Deli Bar, Pizza, Pasta and a range of Street Food from around the globe.

There are also a number of cafés located directly opposite the Parkinson Building.

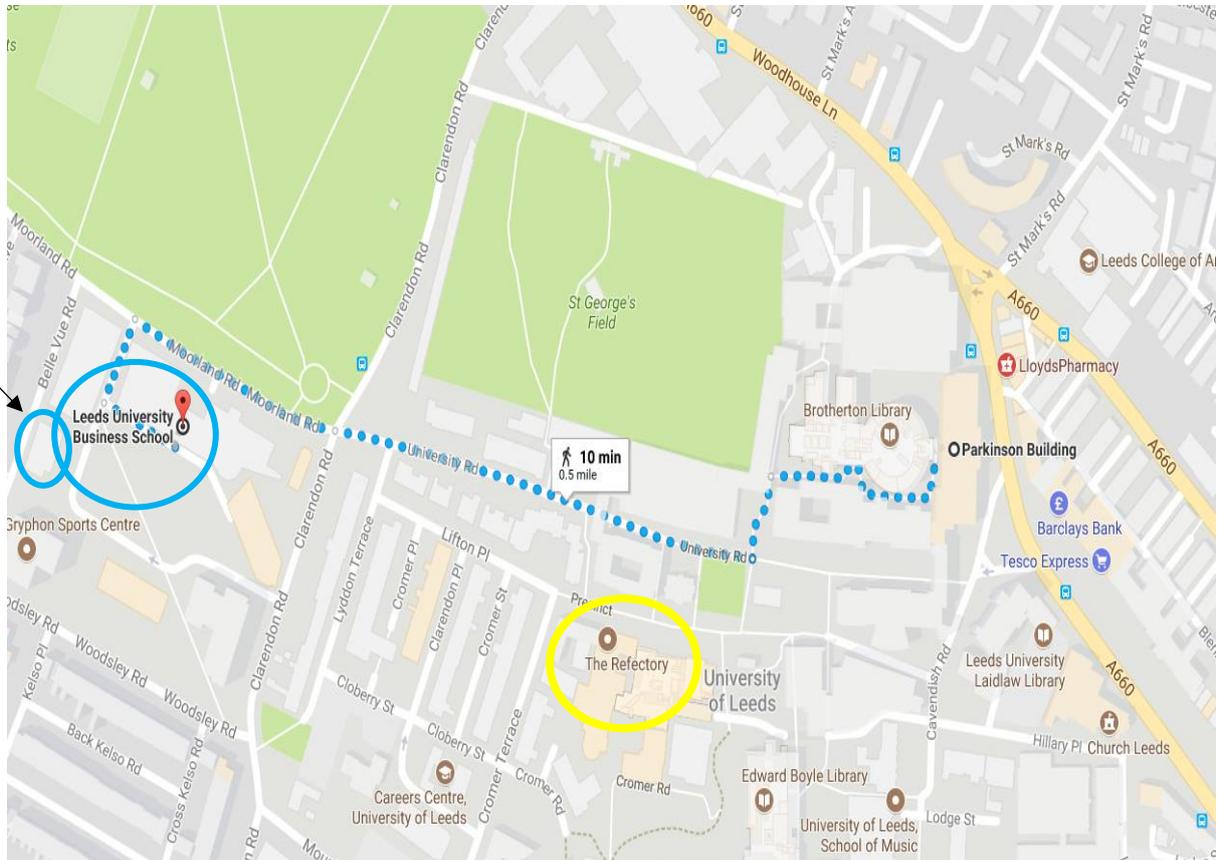

If you would like a more substantial meal The Faversham restaurant is always a great choice, located around a 10 minute walk away from the Business School.

Millennium Square is also a great choice, with a selection of bars and restaurants scattered in and around the area.

How to reach the venue

From the Parkinson Building the Business School is around a 10 minute walk.

Western Lecture
Theatre

You can access the Business School via Clarendon Rd or Moorland Rd. If you have arranged to park at the Business School you can access the car park via Moorland Rd.

If accessing the building via Moorland Rd, after turning left off the main road, turn left again through the first set of double doors you see and the room in which we will be serving tea and coffee is located on the left hand side (G.31).

If accessing the building via Clarendon Rd, turn right and walk up the small flight of steps. You should then see a set of glass revolving doors on your right. Walk through the doors and turn left towards the reception desk. From here we will have guides who can direct you to G.31.

All talks will be held in the Western Lecture Theatre, as marked on the above map. This is just across the road from G.31.
